Floyd spent a lot of time in France and it comes out in these recipes. He knows his stuff and sorts the wheat from the chaff. He focuses on the important elements of a dish and is quite clear when a substitute ingredient will work and that it is not one of the priority elements. At times almost slapdash, but effective and successful.

~~BBC Two – Floyd on France – Episode guide~~

All four of Floyd's marriages ended in divorce; he had a son and daughter. Floyd spent many years in France. In 1974 he moved to Vaucluse department, in the south-east of France, with Paddy Walker and her three young children. Together, they formed a company called Walker Floyd, buying wines in Vaucluse and then driving them back to Bristol to be sold to the city's bars and restaurants.
