Here ' s a better way to write brilliant lyrics — even on a bad day.
Step 1: Gather Raw Materials.
Most songs start with a vague idea or emotion. So how do you get to a finished, compelling lyric? The answer is to use your vague idea as a starting point and to gather raw material around the idea. It seems obvious; to write well, of course you should understand your subject! But this is a ...

The process of writing lyrics, perhaps more than any other discipline in music, is very personal to the writer. Everyone has a different approach, and what will work well for one lyricist will not necessarily work for another. Some people can write a whole song in five minutes, for some people it can take months.

Writing lyrics that “ show—don ’ t tell ” is one of the basics of songwriting, and is one of the first things taught in almost every songwriting class. But for many songwriters, it ’ s easier to write lyrics that state how the singer feels. For example: “ My heart is filled with happiness ” ; or, “ I ’ m lonely and my heart is broken. ”
